The Feeling in Political Circles.

Republicans Acknowledge the Corn—The State Democratic—A Democratic Senator in the Prospective.

Special to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA, November 6, 1874.

The political feeling since the election has not calmed down here, but rather seems to be more excited. Republicans now squarely admit their complete defeat. From the latest returns brought in to-day and this evening they concede the State to the Democrats by a good majority, running up into the thousands. It is also conceded that the Democrats have that precious plum,—the next United States Senatorship in their hands,—as they will have a decided majority in the Legislature in joint ballot. Wallace and Jerry Black are talked of for the place.

The Ring men try to philosophically explain the defeat as the result of an "off year," but the candid opinion of those who are not blinded by such sophistries is, that the people became thoroughly disgusted with the operations of the "Ring" in the State, and so expressed themselves at the polls. Democrats have the grace to admit that it was this feeling among Republicans that gave them the victory, but they say now that the people have turned, they will stay that way. They seem to forget that it is not the principles of Republicanism that were rebuked but the would-be leaders who undertook to "run the party" with a high hand, and held sway until the people became thoroughly disgusted. The general opinion in Republican circles, outside the "Ring" influence, is that the defeat is all right, and will in the end prove its value by bringing about greater Republican triumphs than ever.

PHILADELPHIA, November 6.—With corrections and additions received to-day, Latta's majority foots up 13,018. Official returns are still wanting from Forrest, Sullivan, Allegheny and Philadelphia counties. Only three wards of Philadelphia have thus far been counted, and they increased Latta's vote by 235 from the returns made on election night.

THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, November 6, 1874.

Investigating Arkansas Affairs.

The Select Committee appointed by the House of Representatives last session to investigate Government affairs in Arkansas will meet at Little Rock on Wednesday next. The Sub-committee, consisting of Messrs. Ward, of Illinois, and Taylor, of Ohio, spent about a month there the past summer, and took a mass of testimony, which, printed, makes a volume of some five hundred pages. These same gentlemen, together with Mr. Poland, Chairman of the commit tee, are to take up and continue the investigation of the other two members of the committee. One, Mr. Woodford, of New York, has resigned as Representative, and the other, Mr. Sloss, of Alabama, will probably be prevented by his personal affairs from taking any part in the proceedings.

The Safe Burglary Trial

was resumed to-day. John O. Evans testified that his books were in Harrington's care for several weeks during the District of Columbia investigation.

Judge Humphrey decided that the paper submitted yesterday by Mr. Riddle showing the condition of Whitely with the pardon of Miles be excluded, with the exception of the pardon signed by Gov. Dix.

Mr. Riddle announced that he was through with the evidence for the prosecution except one witness not yet arrived, and his testimony would have reference to the case against Whitely.

Hon. N. B. Smithers then addressed the jury for the defence. Before concluding, the court took a recess.

When Mr. Smithers had concluded, Samuel Chandler was sworn and testified that he lives in the family of Col. Whitely at Cambridgeport, and remembered that Col. Whitely gave a dinner party to Collector Simmons and others on April 6th.

FRANCE.

Reply to the Spanish Memorandum.

PARIS, November 6.—The reply of the Duke De Cazes, Minister of Foreign Affairs, to the Spanish memorandum will be sent to Madrid on Monday next. It will deal specifically with each complaint, and refute the assertions contained in the memorandum by documentary testimony. The Duke declines to discuss the question of surveillance exercised by the French authorities on the frontier, because the matter is of a purely internal nature. He also declines to communicate his reply to other powers, as he disapproves of the course Spain adopted when sending her memorandum.

THE ELECTIONS.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, November 6.—The official vote of this county gives Hardin, Democrat, for Governor, 2,000 majority; Coleman, for Lieutenant Governor, 1,479. On the State ticket Emil Thomas, Republican, gets 1,068 majority, the only Republican candidate elected. Of the fourteen Representatives to the lower house of the Legislature elected, eight are Republicans and six Democrats, and of three Senators elected, one is a Republican and two Democrats. The vote ran behind the registration about 8,000.

The reported majority from sixty-three counties, embracing the most populous and heaviest Democratic counties in the State, give Hardin 22,000 majority. The Tenth Congressional District gives Judge Dobell, Democrat, 324 majority over Hyde, Republican, the present incumbent. Returns from no other districts are yet complete. The Democrats claim that they will have a majority in the House of fifty and in the Senate twenty-five.

ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, November 6.—The Democratic majority in the State is not less than 15,000. The results in the First Congressional District is doubtful. If Haralson, (colored,) Republican, has been scratched to any considerable extent, he is beaten by Bromberg. In the Second District, Williams, Democrat, has a majority of 1,000 over Rapier, (colored,) Republican. In the Third District, Bradford, Democrat, defeats Aleen by 5,000. In the Fourth District, Hayes, Republican, has 6,000 majority. The race in the Fifth and Sixth Districts was between Democrats. In the former, Caldwell beats Sheffield by 2,000. Herbert will beat Sloss in the present incumbent, by about 7,000 majority. The Democratic majority on joint ballot in the Legislature will be twenty-nine.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, November 6.—A New Iberia dispatch says when the commissioners of the Hubertsville poll came to hand in their box, the supervisor could not be found. When tendered to him next morning, he replied that according to law it was too late, and refused to receive it. On Wednesday the supervisor started for New Orleans, leaving the Hubertsville box behind. Without this box the Republicans elect the entire parish ticket.

NEVADA.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 6.—The returns from Nevada are still incomplete. Adams, Democrat, is elected Lieutenant Governor. Woodburn, Republican, is elected to Congress. The Republican majority in the Legislature on joint ballot is fifteen to twenty. The Republicans claim the entire State ticket.

FLORIDA.

AUGUSTA, November 6.—News from Key West, Florida, says the Cubans voted for the Republican candidate, thus defeating Anderson, Democrat, for Congress, in the First District. Wall, (colored,) Republican, has been elected over Finlay, Democrat, in the Second district. The Democrats have a majority of twenty in the Legislature.

NEW JERSEY.

HACKENSACK, N. J., November 6.—Bergen county's official count, gives Cutler for Congress 595 majority, allowing Phelps all imperfect ballots. Morris county gives Cutler 40, and Passaic county gives Phelps 630, allowing him all imperfect ballots. This elects Cutler by five.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, November 6.—Hurlbut has a Republican majority in the Fourth Illinois district of 990. Farwell's (Republican) majority in the Third is now stated to be one hundred.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 6, 1874.

Meetings of the "Unterrified."

The two political meetings in this city last night gave an opportunity for speeches and congratulations. A reception at the Manhattan Club brought together many of the lights of the Democracy, and speeches were made by Governor elect Tilden, Senators Thurman, Bayard, Stockton, Senator elect Eaton and others. Most of the speakers counseled magnanimity and moderation in the hour of triumph. At Tammany Hall John Kelly made an address, remarkable for the force with which he urged on his party an honest management and wise use of their newly-obtained power, reminding them that they owed their success to the conservative element in the Republican party.

HOME NEWS.

The Register's Office.

One of the most courteous as well as the most efficient officials the county ever had is Register Gray, who has charge of the Register's office. The fact of his popularity with the people was attested by his re-election, and is daily confirmed by all who have official intercourse with him. In another column this morning he makes announcement of business before him that should receive special attention.

Westward and Farmward.

The Irish Catholics who expect to better their condition by going West, will have a meeting at the Ninth ward school house, Allegheny, this evening, at 7:30. Mr. M. O'Dowd, of Omaha, will be present to give information. Mr. O'Dowd will be in the Library of the Catholic Cathedral in this city Sunday afternoon and evening, and will give an illustrated paper with maps and full particulars about the Irish settlements.

Poor House Items.

A regular monthly meeting of the Allegheny Board of Poor Directors was held yesterday afternoon. The steward reported 205 inmates in the Poor House. The Secretary reported that he had paid out $449.61 for the relief of the poor, and had collected $325.84 for boarding paupers. A committee was appointed to purchase the winter supply of purchasing groceries and provisions for the Poor House at wholesale. Some further unimportant routine business was transacted, after which the Board adjourned.

Lamp Lighting.

The Gas Committee of Allegheny Councils met last evening and adopted a resolution requesting the Mayor to instruct the police to light the gas lamps at sundown, and keep them lighted until daybreak, and that hereafter the policemen be required to light the lamps themselves, and not employ boys to do it for them. It was agreed to recommend that Common Council concur in the action of Select Council in adopting the resolution accepting the offer of the Gas Company to reduce the price of gas. Bills to the amount of $310 were approved.

Sheriff Hare's Announcement.

Sheriff Hare,—who discharges the very responsible duties of his office, in a way that receives the endorsement and commendation of all who have public business to transact with him—elsewhere in this morning's paper makes announcement of prospective sales of real estate. Chief Clerk Cluley has arranged the sales in the systematic order, so characteristic of all his work, —for which the reader will accord him thanks,—while the compliments of the "types" who handled the "copy" are due Clerk Scandrett for the beautiful manuscript, plain as letter press; with which he performed them. The properties described embrace some of the most eligible pieces of real estate in the County, and intending purchasers would do well to make a note of the time, and lot or lots mentioned.

PARTNERSHIP TROUBLES.

A Settlement in the Courts Desired.

Yesterday Mr. J. K. Lanahan filed a bill in equity in the Court of Common Pleas setting forth that he was first surety for Patrick and Timothy Scanlon, who received the contract for grading Forbes street, from Shady Lane to Bequest street, that subsequently—two days after becoming surety —he entered into partnership with them, on July 15, 1873. That Patrick was to receive the money. Timothy attended to the disbursement for work done, and he (Lanahan) to have charge to keep the accounts; that subsequently Timothy retired and sold his interest to Patrick without consulting him (Lanahan), and that Patrick is trying to secure the balance due,—about $25,000, with the intention of leaving Lanahan to pay all the debts. Hence Mr. Lanahan seeks redress, and the Court will look into the matter.

THE COUNTY TICKET.

The Democrats Successful—The Full Unterrified Ticket Probably Elected —The Figures.

Considerable interest has been felt in reference to the county ticket, and although the official returns have not yet all been opened, interested parties have been "figuring" with a result that leads to the general conviction that the whole Democratic ticket has gone through. In the District Attorneyship and Assistant it is conceded that the Democratic candidates have upwards of five hundred majority in the first instance, and perhaps more in the second. The County Commissionership is also handed over to the Democrats.

Mr. Hawkin's friends have been claiming his election by a small majority, but the best statisticians cannot calculate it that way. Taking the official vote of Pittsburgh and Allegheny cities, the count stands over 800 majority against him. Then giving him the majorities in the 38 districts not heard from, that were secured by Mackey, and he would still lack over 300 votes of making the landing. This is a calculation made by a Republican who has access to the figures, and seems to be in accord with what has already been made. Consequently it is altogether probable that the Judgship is also on the Democratic side of the ticket—at least that's the present run of the returns.

THE WATER COMMITTEE ONCE MORE.

An Unusually Interesting Session Last Night—A Determined but Unsuccessful Attempt to Oust Secretary Duff—Trouble About Approving Estimates —Completion of the Pumping House Foundations.

An adjourned session of the Water Committee was held last night in Municipal Hall. The first business taken up was that of approving the pay rolls and estimates, which were dropped at the last meeting owing to the want of a quorum. The estimate in favor of James Reese, amounting to $1,939.58, for constructing a new engine for the upper Water Works, was referred to the Committee on Machinery. The remaining estimates were then taken up and all approved except as otherwise noted.

In the matter of the approval of the Hiland avenue reservoir estimate, Mr. Milligan objected to it on the ground that the question of the legality of the transfer of the contract from C. Howard & Son to Jacob H. Walter had not been passed upon by Common Council: Upon being put to a vote, the estimate was not approved. Some of the members who were in favor of approving it then became obstinate, and voted against approving every other estimate that was brought up. The estimates of Hutchinson & Co., for stop gates, and Snyder & Co., for boilers, were both laid aside, after which Messrs. Watson and Harrison made brief speeches, to the effect that they failed to perceive what the Water Committee met for unless it transacted the business laid before it. The estimate in favor of Hartupee & Co. for the first pair of engines was next approved, but the estimate on the second pair did not meet with that disposition. It went over.

Mr. Rayburn moved to reconsider the action taken on the Hiland reservoir estimate, which was carried, but a motion to approve it was again lost.

Mr. Harrison moved to adjourn.

Mr. Aull opposed it and said there was plenty of important business to attend to, among which was the awarding of the contract for laying water pipe on Lincoln avenue, and he didn't think there was any necessity for sacrificing hundreds of dollars through a spirit of obstinacy. Mr. Harrison's motion was lost, when the bid for laying a six-inch water pipe on Clay street, in the Seventeenth ward, was opened and the contract awarded to Duff and McGaffin at twenty-five cents per foot. He also got the contract for laying water pipe on Lincoln avenue, in the Twenty-first ward, at the same price for the same size.

Mr. Fox renewed the motion for a reconsideration of the refusal to approve the Hiland reservoir estimate and once again it was carried. Mr. Aull then moved that all of the estimate was finally approved with the proviso that it meets the acceptance of Councils, to which it was referred. The transfer of the contract was also made the action of the Common Council. A report was also made to the effect that Father Goodeman in his trouble with the church is doubted, but an investigation by the Bishop of the Diocese will shortly take place.

Mr. Aull stated that a communication had been sent in by the Controller calling the attention of the Committee to a clause in the city digest which provides that all valuable papers such as deeds, contracts, bonds, &c., shall be turned over to him for safe keeping. The letter was not produced but on motion of Mr. Aull it was decided to put the matter in the hands of the Committee on Finance.

Following on the heels of this action, Mr. Mitchell presented a report of the Committee appointed to get from Secretary Duff the key and combination of the safe and examine its contents. The report was very full and explicit, and gave a detailed statement of the manner in which Mr. Duff would give up the key and make known the combination, unless to his bondsman, Mr. Myler, all the circumstances connected with the breaking open of the safe on the 28th of March, 1873, were made public, and concluded with a minute description of the bonds and everything else found in the safe. When the reading of the report was finished it was received, approved, and the Committee discharged. A member then called for an exhibition of the bonds, and Mr. Mitchell, on the spot, produced them, placed them on the table for the inspection of all who felt any inclination to make an examination. The three bonds, amounting to $14,500, which were found in Assessor Bostwick in the desk of Secretary Duff, were also produced. They are registered bonds, issued under the act of March 13, 1871, and are numbered 231, 684 and 682, but do not bear the signature of either the Mayor or Controller.

When the committeemen were through looking at the bonds, Mr. Scully opened up a matter that proved to be a very prolific source of excitement. He moved that the position of Secretary Duff be declared vacant, adding that he understood the gentleman was not competent to fill the place he occupied. He said it was pretty well known he owes to the city o get some one who can perform its duties properly.

Mr. Milligan objected to any such proceeding, and said he did not think the right to attempt to oust a man who was prevented by sickness from being present.

Mr. Aull said that Mr. Duff had been guilty of neglect of duty to be sufficient cause for his instant removal, and that he could prove it by two witnesses who were present in the room. He then referred to the bid made by Mr. Mackey, to do the work for one cent per twenty-five cents a foot, and alleged that Mr. Duff had told him he might as well increase the amount of it as he was the only bidder and would get the contract anyhow.

In reply to Mr. Aull's statement, Mr. Milligan said that a few minutes after the conversation between Duff and McGaffin he entered the rooms of the Water Committee and Duff said to him, "Why, here it is nine o'clock, the time is up for receiving bids, and only one, from Mr. McGaffin, is in. I told him he was the only bidder, and that he might as well have made it larger." Mr. Milligan said that he looked on the matter only in the light of a joke, and never thought of it again until it was brought up and used to the detriment of Mr. Duff.

Mr. Anderson said the question of Mr. Duff's honesty or dishonesty was not before the committee, it was whether his position should be declared vacant or not. He thought the committee should certainly have a Secretary, but he was also of the opinion that it was altogether wrong to attack the integrity of Mr. Duff, or to question his honesty.

Mr. Goldthorp—"I won't take advantage of a sick man, no how."

The motion to declare Mr. Duff's place vacant was lost, and it was moved to elect a temporary Secretary, whereupon the names of Richard Lee, John Patterson and Ed. Case were suggested as good persons for the position, but the Chairman ruled that a temporary Secretary could not be elected.

Mr. Mitchell said he was astonished at some of the members refusing to vote for Mr. Scully's motion. He considered Mr. Duff's books displayed his incompetency.

Mr. Aull said he was elected through political influence, and not because of his qualifications as a clerk or book-keeper.

Mr. Hunter—"I was among the six who recommended Mr. Duff for the position he occupies, and I know there was no political influence so far as I am concerned."

Mr. Goldthorpe—"I did not know Mr. Duff until I met him in connection with this committee, and no political influence did nor affect my vote for him."

Mr. Morrison—"Fess up, gentlemen, 'fess up all around."

Mr. Milligan—"If you declare his office vacant to-night, during his sickness, you can't make the public prints believe that it was done from any other motive than spite."

Mr. Cunningham—"If we are afraid of the public prints we had better resign."

Mr. Harrison, who had moved that when the Committee adjourn it adjourn until Friday evening of next week to elect a Secretary, said that he made the motion because of Mr. Duff's sickness, and consequent inability to be present, but hoped that by the time set he could be on hand.

Mr. Mitchell—"Did you feel his pulse?"

Mr. Milligan—"I am in favor of Mr. Harrison's motion. I almost feel willing to guarantee that by Monday I can get Mr. Duff's resignation."

Mr. Mitchell, tutto voce to Mr. Scully—"I'm disgusted with this committee. 'Pon my word I'm disgusted."

Mr. Cunningham—"I move the parties interested in keeping Mr. Duff, pay for a temporary secretary."

Mr. Anderson—"Mr. Duff will have to make oath to the Controller that he has rendered service, in order to draw his salary, and he might be willing to pay for a temporary clerk himself, as he has not been here, so that he could state that service has been rendered at least in a measure.

Mr. Meyran—"I don't think Duff will claim pay for the time he has not been here."

Mr. Morrison—You wouldn't keep a sick man out of his pay, would you?"

The long debate, the merits of which the public shall be the judge, was finally ended by the adoption of Mr. Harrison's motion.

Mr. Meyran offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee to confer with the Controller for the purpose of ascertaining what employes of the Water Works Extension can be dispensed w It was passed.

Mechanical Engineer Lowry the pumping house foundati finished, and he invited the fix the time for laying the corner s... was decided to name next Friday at ten o'clock as the hour for the ceremony, and also to request the presence of Councils and all citizens who feel interested in the matter.

BREVITIES.

Paragraphic Pencilings of Passing Events.

Pittsburgh Councils will hold a regular meeting on Monday afternoon.

Wm. Miller, a railroad laborer, was struck by the Erie express train yesterday at Freedom, and killed.

Judge Sterrett ruled, yesterday, that barkeepers who sell liquor to minors, are liable as well as the proprietor. This is an important decision.

A flouring mill at Connellsville caught fire yesterday from flying sparks from the burning woods in the vicinity of that town, and was burned down.

An unknown man attempted to drown himself last night in the Allegheny river. Officer Gallagher rescued him and placed him in the Central Station House.

Samuel Slater was arrested last evening about seven o'clock for cutting James Murphy under the jaw bone. The affair occurred at the corner of Penn and Nineteenth streets.

A reduction in the wages among the "puddlers" on the South Side is about to be made. The manufacturers want to cut down in the rates one dollar per ton from the present prices.

Officer Weir, who has heretofore been in the Mayor's office police force, of Allegheny, was the occasion of an alarm from box 45, about nine o'clock last evening. The damage was slight.

The remains of a female infant was found in the Allegheny river yesterday, and at the Coroners inquest, a verdict of "death from drowning," was rendered. The body could not be identified.

Mr. Ladley has transferred his field of operations to Allegheny. John Hale was arrested yesterday for alleged cruelty to a horse which he was driving, and was assigned quarters in the lock-up.

There is quite a "stir" among a number of creditors on the South Side on account of the sudden disappearance of a well known whisky dealer from business on Carson street. A reward of $2,000 has been offered for his arrest.

A suit in ejectment was entered in the Common Pleas Court yesterday, by John Manz against Casper Fuchs and his wife, for the recovery of two lots in Etna borough, the title of which the plaintiff claims is vested in him from the defendants. A summons was issued.

The will of Ann Huston, of Allegheny, was admitted to probate yesterday. She makes a handsome bequest to the Board of Foreign Missions of the U. P. Church, besides remembering a number of relatives. Jas. P. Knox is appointed executor, and the instrument is dated October 28, 1874.

There were two alarms of fire last night, but no actual building burning. The first was occasioned by the burning of a chimney at the corner of Fifth and Market streets, and the second by a small fire in the County Jail, on Penn avenue between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh streets.

About eleven o'clock last night Thomas Hart knocked a woman down at the corner of Grant street and Fifth avenue, and beat her badly. Thomas is a hearty man, but not enough so for Officer Berger who landed him within the gloomy confines of the prison cell, where he sits and sings to pass the time away.

The will of Mrs. Ann Saville, of Allegheny City, was filed in the Register's office yesterday. She bequeaths two lots on Howard street, Allegheny, to her husband, and the remainder of her estate to her four children, Thomas, Benjamin, John and Jerry. The will is dated September 8, and John Bielly is named as executor.

An action was begun in the United Stated District Court yesterday, by U. S. Attorney Reed against the Pittsburgh, Brownsville and Geneva Packet Company, for violation of the act of Congress of March, 1873, which provides that steamboats shall be properly equipped to insure the safety of passengers. The violation consists in not having a wire tiller rope used in carrying oil when passing the locks.

At a meeting of the Corn Exchange, held yesterday morning, Mr. McHenry, from the committee, reported that they had been unable to agree with the Pennsylvania railroad officers, who wanted the grain dealers to reduce their complaints to writing. Accordingly, a paper was prepared, and approved by the Exchange, and signed by all present. In substance it set forth its grievances as we have heretofore detailed.

The planet Venus is now 2 hours 39 minutes and 12 seconds east of the sun and 12 degrees farther south. Hence, to find the place of Venus in the day time, note the place of the sun, add 2h. 39m. and 12 minutes before 3 in the afternoon take the same point in the eye, and sweep downwards a little more than one-third of the distance from that point to the south point of the horizon. The planet is very easily seen when the observer looks for it in the right direction.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.

Second Day of the Convention in the M. E. Church, Allegheny.

This important body reassembled yesterday morning at half-past ten o'clock, Rev. Dr. Matthews presiding. There was a full attendance of delegates, and a goodly number of spectators.

The Convention, at the suggestion of B. F. Pulpress, reassumed the control of the decisions of the topics to be considered, and in obedience to this action, the topics were asked and answered as follows, many of the brethren participating in the discussions:

3rd. What constitutes a competent superintendent? Answer—A professor of religion, and he must have a consistent knowledge of the English language.

4th. What are the secrets of teaching a Sabbath school, and the best method of success? Answer—Promptness, kindness, thoroughness, and oral prayerful instruction.

5th. Are teachers' meetings profitable for Sabbath schools? Answer—They are.

6th. What relation do church members hold to Sabbath schools? Answer—The Church and Sunday school are closely allied —relation equal—one family.

7th. What means can we adopt to enlist the parents in the Sabbath school work? Answer—Let the Church, as a unit, go to work in the Sunday school, and then the unconverted will come in.

8th. To what extent should children be permitted to memorize and recite Scripture lessons? Not more than five verses each, a week.

9th. Is it prudent to organize temperance societies in Sabbath Schools?

Ninth topic passed by, with a strong concurrence of condemnation of intemperance, but referred to the Discipline of the Church.

The Sabbath School of Mission church (Mr. Madden, Supt., Rev. Bell, pastor), and Sabbath School of John Wesley church, Pittsburgh (John T. Moore, Supt., and Rev. Dr. Matthews, pastor), were present, and joined in singing several beautiful pieces. The singing was led by B. F. Pulpress, and the organ ably presided over by Miss Lizzie Pulpress.

Among the pieces were: "Labor on," "Gather them into the fold," and "Gloria Patri."

Closed with the benediction.

In the evening, the Constitution of the Union was adopted, and addresses delivered by Prof. Day, Rev. Dr. Boyd, Rev. W. Roggen, Rev. Tiery, Rev. Williams, Rev. Bell, George D. Ware, and others, and pieces sung by the select choir.

Voted, when the Convention adjourn to meet in Uniontown, in 1875.

Notice of dedication of a church by Rev. Pipkins, Rev. Dr. Matthews, and other clergymen, at Homewood, on November 22d.

The roll of members being called, and votes of thanks to the President and other officers, to Prof. Day and Mrs. Georgie F. Day, to the members of the two churches in Allegheny city and Pittsburgh, and to the press, being adopted, Convention adjourned.

Everybody Seems Glad.

Nobody appears to be depressed by the political revolution, which is partly to be accounted for by the fact that Wm. Martin, of No. 108 Federal street, Allegheny, has reduced the price of his boots and shoes to a gold basis. He always did sell at low rates, but he considers that his former prices must come down to a Democratic standard, and parties may expect to find hereafter at his store the very best assortment of boots and shoes at unheard of low figures. The great beauty of buying from Martin is that you get boots and shoes of superlative excellence at figures no higher than you would pay for a shoddy article at many other shoe houses.

How Tweed must rejoice. A few months and he will again inspire old Tammany.

THE question of the hour is, "What does Butler think of newspapers now?"

MANY Democratic mouths are already watering for the United States Senatorial plum.

BRITISH power in Afghanistan is threatened by Yakoob Khan, who assails in force his father Shere Ali, on account of the toleration of British influence in his territory. The hand of Russia is evidently in this.

WHO charged the Commercial with the responsibility for the defeat of the Republican party in this State? It has twice disclaimed it, already. Are its feelings on that subject so keen that it cannot avoid speaking? It looks suspicious to deny what is not charged. Possibly it is on the principle that "a guilty conscience needs no accuser."

THE centennial of Universalism was celebrated at Gloucester, Massachusetts, a few days since. A hundred years ago John Murray passed through the country as the Apostle of Universalism—a mild, sweet-spirited man, of great pulpit power. But he met insult and persecution—the day in which he lived not being famous for the exercise of religious charity.

THE Washington Chronicle suggests that Jeff. Davis may possibly, under the existing condition of things, be the next President of the United States. If the Democrats nominate two candidates, and the Republicans one, the election, it claims, may be thrown into the House, and the nineteen Democratic votes would go to Davis, as the Southern candidate.

THE New York Tribune soothes its excitable feelings, since election, by giving an editorial account of Job Tottle, who died at Tarrytown, "a Scotch-Irish village in Pennsylvania." Job was of eccentric mind, under-fed, imaginative, slightly heterodox, and possessed of a contempt for money that was quite remarkable. Evidently an inspiring and suggestive character for the Tribune.

IS THERE no power in our city government competent to deal with this Water Bond question? The report was started in an evening paper yesterday that $16,000 of bonds are forgeries, having been issued in 1871, with Mayor Blackmore's signature, before he came into office. Also, that a new lot of $14,500 have been found. It is now time that this matter received thorough examination.

THE exact moral estimate to be put upon the State election in New York is conclusively given in the character of the Constitutional amendments carried or defeated. Those that prevented the buying and selling of votes were defeated, as were those designed to prevent abuses in the Canal and Sinking Funds, while those increasing the pay of legislators were carried. These are samples of the selections made all through.

IN 1840 the Democracy were beaten over the country, yet in 1844 they elected Polk over Clay. In 1852 the Democrats carried all the States but four for Polk, and began to break up in 1853. In 1860 Lincoln was elected, yet the Republicans were beaten in 1862, and the Democrats again beaten in 1864. The defeat of the Republicans this year is merely an intimation that it must rectify wrongs, and if it does this, it is sure of success in 1876.

THERE can no longer be any doubt about it, the State has gone Democratic, and it is now only a question of majority. The Democrats have undoubtedly elected their three State officers, and have gained full control of the Legislature. The latest returns indicate that the House will be Democratic by a majority of from twenty to twenty-five. This leaves them a clear advantage on joint ballot of from eighteen to twenty,—as the Republicans have only a plurality of six in the Senate. The result will be the election of a Democratic United States Senator to fill the place of Hon. John Scott, whose term expires in 1875.

WE like independence in political journalism,—there is something so beautiful and refreshing in it. If an "Independent," for example, happened to be published in this city, it would have little or nothing to say against any of the many Rings, but would be either silent toward them, or commend their measures when paid for it. It might select one or two candidates, against whom it had personal grievance, and who were too poor to pay its price, and abuse and ridicule them, and sustain other men, not a whit better. It would also abuse and misrepresent those who had charge of the canvass, and when it was over, claim credit for defeating a part of the ticket. There is something to admire in this splendid consistency. When we see this model of independence actually opposing Rings, State and local, or even refusing to do any dirty service they may demand or pay for, we will give it credit for some degree of moral purpose. That an occasional break out against some poor devil foredoomed to defeat is "independence" is exceedingly thin. Who put these men in nomination? Who are responsible for State and local management? Against whom were the blows of the people really leveled? And did our self-vaunted "independent" strike at the real objects of the people's censure? Not much.

WE ARE in full accord with all of the many excellent things that are or may be said as to the general excellence of President Grant's administration. We are not of the opinion expressed by the Post that the election of Tuesday was a blow against his course, or a verdict against him, or a decision as to Third Termism. We mentioned yesterday the only particular in which we believe his course was involved in the canvass. Just so far as it failed to prevent the panic,—and this involved but a single action,—it was involved, but no farther. We believe in that, the President was influenced by a man who has since, unfortunately, been retired as an incompetent, but it does not change a fact,—that at the inception of the panic the reserve of currency was held back, only to be given out when it could do no possible good. It was, of course, purely a question of judgment, at a time when few persons were free from excitement. But the general course of President Grant has, we fully believe, commanded the cordial respect of the people. The maintenance of a sound currency, and the smooth and successful management of the affairs of the country, the firm and vigorous manner with which he has dealt with all the troubles at the South, and the dignity with which he has maintained his position before the country are all deserving of cordial praise. We criticise in only a single particular.

WE BRIEFLY mentioned yesterday, the celebration of the eightieth birthday of William Cullen Bryant, the poet-editor. His remarks, embracing memories and forecastes, given in response to the congratulatory address of Mr. Sturgis, is worthy reproducing in part. He said: "I remember the time when Bonaparte filled the post of First Consul in the French Republic—for I began early to read the newspapers. I saw how that republic grew into an empire; how that empire enlarged itself by successive conquests on all sides, and how the mighty mass, collapsing by its own weight, fell into fragments. I have seen from that time to this change after change take place, and the result of them all, as it seems to me, is that the liberties and rights of the humbler classes have been more and more regarded, both in framing and executing the laws. For the greater part of my own eighty years it seemed to me, and I think it seemed to all, that the extinction of slavery was an event to be accomplished by a remote posterity. But all this time its end was approaching, and suddenly it sank into a bloody grave. The union of the Italian principalities under one head, and the breaking up of that anomaly in politics, the possession of political power by a priesthood, seemed, during the greater part of the fourscore years of which I have spoken, an event belonging to a distant and uncertain future, yet was it drawing near by steps not apparent to the common eyes, and it came in our own day. The people of Italy willed it, and the people were obeyed. There is yet a time which good men earnestly hope and pray for—the day when the populations of the civilized world shall prepare for a universal peace by disbanding the enormous armies which they keep in camps and garrisons, and sending their soldiery back to the fields and workshops from which, if the people were wise, their sovereigns never should have withdrawn them. Let us hope that this will be one of the next great changes." And this change will soon certainly come.

WHAT THEY PROPOSE.

The conferment of power on the Democracy, so far as this State and the nation are concerned, has been so judiciously partial, that it is of little practical value to them. That is, they can only exert negative power, preventing the Republicans from doing certain things, but will not be able to originate and carry partisan measures. They hold one branch of our State Legislature, but the Republicans have the other, and the State officials. They have gained one House of Congress, and will only gain power there a year from December, while the Republicans hold the Senate and have all the Departments of Government in their hands. Thus the Democracy will be merely a check on the Republican party, a position in which, if they are wise, they can do good, and gain popular confidence. But already there looms up out of the jollification of their victory the old spirit, and we hear much of the overturning they hope to accomplish. In the Legislature we already hear that they propose to sift into and nullify the last charter election held in this city, and legislate for a new one. This looks very well, but it is beyond their power. The taxpayers are on the right track as regards that matter. If there is anything wrong about our charter election it is a question for the Courts. The case may very properly be taken there, and if the election was illegal, as to time, manner or circumstances, they have a perfect right to have it set aside, and a new election ordered. But so far as the Legislature is concerned, there are at least two difficulties in the way of the Democrats. First, they have not control of the Senate, and need not expect any purely party measure they may originate to pass there. This, of course, would be recognized as such. Second, it is a grave question whether the Legislature has the power to neutralize an election already held, as also whether legislation can be made retroctive, and used to interpret the requirements of the State Constitution. These questions would throw the subject into the courts. But we do not imagine the Democracy will be able to carry these purposes into effect, for the reason that the Senate is against them. What the taxpayers may do is another matter, and we can discuss it more intelligently when we know the points on which they propose to act.

Thus far the views of the Democracy, as regards Congress, center entirely on the accumulation of spoils. What offices are to be secured, and who shall have them, seem to be the questions of immediate interest. John Morrissey is already mentioned as a candidate for the very lucrative position of Sergeant-at-Arms, and for the clerkships and minor places there is a host of candidates. It is given out, however, that they will institute a rigid inquiry into the management of Republican administration, and we judge a sharp inquiry will be made into the operations of the several Executive departments of the Government. The fact that there will be a short session of the present Congress, which will defer the day of practical power for the Democracy one full year, serves both to enable the Republicans to prepare for coming events, and to somewhat quiet the enthusiasm of the Democracy. The same reasons have fled to the withholding of expression as to purely legislative purposes.

The election will serve to inspire early and deep interest in the next Presidential contest. Already Thurman, of Ohio, has made a bid for the nomination, and we venture that the struggle for an honor that has more prospect of being followed by practical results than has been the case for many years before, will be greedily and earnestly sought after. The removal of General Sherman to St. Louis has been interpreted by many as the first step toward being put in training for the Democratic nomination. But the higher the hopes of the regular leaders rise, the less will be his chances. Sherman has really been thought of only as a forlorn hope,—but with some prospect of success before them the Democracy do not want him. He is too impulsive and independent for them. But whether Thurman, Pendleton, Allen, Seymour, McClellan, or some unnamed person will be the coming star is one of the problems of the future.

A NEW DEAL.

Putting aside general influences which may be presumed to account for the result of the elections over nearly the entire country, we hear many local expressions as to what must be done in this State. It comes down to this,—that we must have new leadership, and reformed management in the affairs of the Republican party. As a substitute for the present system, in which party power is really centred in the hands of a few, it is proposed by some, that persons of acknowledged prominence and character be selected from the several forms of business pursuit, and entrusted with the party organization and management, and even with the selection of candidates for office. Again, we hear it declared that our Primary system must be reformed, the officers sworn, and only Republicans allowed to vote. It may not be generally known, but it is true, that in this city, of late years, Democrats have had as much to do with nominating candidates for the Republican party as did the Republicans themselves. A loose system of interpretation obtained, under which a Democrat, professing an intention to support the Republican ticket, was allowed to vote at our Primaries. So loose did this system become, that last June, to our certain knowledge, Democrats voted without being challenged or questioned, and really controlled certain nominations. We are not sure when this system began, but it was largely employed in the Morgan-Gross Mayoralty contest, and has been more or less current since. Reckless politicians sometimes resort to this under special circumstances, but it is an extremely dangerous innovation upon established usages. Once allow the opposition to help make our nominations, and their influence generally goes in favor of the very poorest they can possibly select. We are deliberately of the opinion that the Republican party made very few of its Legislative nominations last Spring. Had it been otherwise, a better ticket would have been selected.

While we do not give expression as to the wisdom of the first proposition, we are very clear that the management of affairs should vest in those who clearly represent the best element of the party. It is true, the Democratic victory just achieved, would seem to illustrate that management has very little to do with such matters—as John Miller and compeers on the Democratic State Committee did little but fulminate foolish and ungrammatical addresses. It was really the people who did what was done Tuesday, irrespective of leadership; but they did it as a protest against what they believed to be corruptions within our party. These take the whole range—party management, abuse of trusts, increase of taxation without clear and adequate explanation, and the belief that the affairs and offices of the party have fallen into the hands of a few, who have intrenched themselves in power. The water works troubles, and even the paving assessments, all come in, to swell the discontent. There is a belief that $500,000 of water bonds are unaccounted for, and a suspicion that makes the masses ready to believe any wild and improbable story that may be started. We confess that we are unable to explain many of these matters. We have not the data with which to do it. There is need of such a complete and lucid explanation of these affairs as will show the people all they wish to know, and the sooner it is done the better.

For part of these troubles we can see and point out a remedy. Others of them can only be cured by the better element of the party coming forward and taking interest in party management. To simply throw aside leadership and leave everything to drift, will not do. Yet we need men at least enough disinterested to claim confidence and command following. As we do not need leaders just now, for all the good they can do, we simply open up this subject and point out the facts. A vast deal will be done toward healing difficulties, however, if we have pure Primaries, with sworn officers, who will receive only Republican votes, and thereby secure really good candidates for office. This much the people are determined to have.

THE cremation of Lady Dilke's body, which took place in Dresden a few days since, was adopted in obedience to the urgent entreaty of the lady in question, to whom the idea of burial was repugnant, and whose last wishes her surviving relatives felt it a duty, at whatever pain to themselves to carry out. A statement published by a contemporary represents men of science as having been present, as if for the purpose of experiment. Their presence was the condition upon which cremation was permitted by the authorities.

IN 1840 the Democrats were swept out of power as by a whirlwind; and yet in 1844 they elected their Presidential candidate, Polk, over the great Henry Clay. In 1852 the Democrats elected Pierce by the electoral votes of all the States except four, but in 1852 their party began to break up and, narrowly escaping a defeat in 1856, it was scattered to the winds in 1860. In 1872 General Grant was re-elected by the electoral votes of all the States except six, with two-thirds of each House of Congress to back him, and yet in 1874 we have something very much like the reactionary whirlwind of 1840, and upon similar issues. —N. Y. Herald.

THE New York Daily Bulletin estimates that the hazards of fire are nearly eight times greater in the United States than they are on the continent of Europe. In Prussia, in 1872, the average rate of fire risk taken was .2046 per cent., while in the State of New York the average was .1149. The loss of the former did not average more than .1211; of the latter the average was .8311. In other words the loss of the stock fire companies in Prussia averaged 12½ cents per $100, these in the United States averaged 83¼ cents. If the yearly loss by fire in the States is as calculated, $75,000,000, then if as much security could be attained as there is in Prussia, we should effect an annual saving of $60,000,000. So much for wooden rookeries and the neglect of an efficient fire limit law.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Sure Preventive to the Freezing of Water Pipes and Accidents of Similar Nature to Water Closets.
We beg leave to offer to the public our Patent Automatic Water Closet,
which is Anti-freezing and Inodorous. It is the most durable Closet in the market, for the following reasons: It will not freeze. It is strictly self-acting. It does not consume any water, thus saving of pipes. It is free from all obnoxious odors, and therefore will improve the sanitary condition of our cities. It has no valves to get out of repair and leak.
With our valuable improvement obnoxious gases pass up in the water, and are dispersed without direct communication made with the sewer pipe.
The public are invited to call at our salesroom and examine this valuable improvement in operation, where its great advantages can be seen at a glance, or send for circular containing full particulars.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, November 7, 1874.

Business at the banks continues good, a tolerable abundance of first-class business paper being offered from day to day. We heard yesterday of $40,000 of gilt-edged paper being offered at one of the banks in one lot. The United States Bank Examiner is in the city and at work, and this causes the banks to be a little careful about letting out their funds, as all wish to make the best possible showing, but he will soon be gone, and full accommodations will be given to good customers. Our banks are in excellent condition, and the result of the examination cannot be otherwise than favorable. The offerings at the banks, being of a business character, represent either actual improvement in business, or projected activity, to be realized out of funds that are being arranged to be thus applied. We are confident that the winter will be less oppressive to the laboring classes in this city than had been surmised. So much, embracing a cheerful outlook for the immediate future, we regard as entirely reliable.

In Philadelphia we continue the old quotations—Call loans at 5 per cent., strictly first-class two-name sixty to ninety days' paper at 5 to 6 per cent., strictly first-class single-name sixty to ninety days' paper at 6 to 7 per cent., first-class three to four months' paper, with good collateral, 5 to 6 per cent.; the same character of paper on the same time, with Government collateral, 6 per cent. Paper of second grade is not much in favor and is placed only after close scrutiny. Although the future movement cannot be predicted with confidence, it is difficult to understand how anything like an "ingrowl" can be precipitated. Prices generally have settled down to an extent which must lessen materially the amount of money requisite to do business, while many of the most prolific sources of demand in the past have dried up entirely.

—The Secretary of the Treasury on Monday issued the thirteenth call for the redemption of 5-20 U. S. bonds. The call is of the 2d instant, and is for five millions of dollars, of which all will be paid. The three months' notice required will expire on the 2d day of February next, when interest on the bonds will cease. That is to say, coupon bonds known as the fourth series, act of February 25, 1862, dated May 1, 1862, as follows:

COUPON BONDS.

$50—No. 4201 to No. 4861, both inclusive.
$100—No. 201 to No. 1,360, both inclusive.
$500—No. 5001 to No. 7000, both inclusive.
$1,000—No. 14,901 to No. 20,000, both inclusive.

The amount outstanding, embraced in the numbers as above, is five million dollars of coupon bonds. This, together with previous calls, reaches a total of fifty-five millions called for redemption since August 1, 1874, being the amount of five per cent. bonds of the loan of July 14, 1870, and January 20, 1871, absolutely subscribed for under the proposals of July, 1874. The parties who contracted for the forty-five millions of the above named amount have the option of the balance of the five per cent. loan until January 31, 1875. United States securities forwarded for redemption should be addressed to the "Loan Division, Secretary's Office," and all registered bonds should be assigned to "the Secretary of the Treasury for redemption."

—Says the Globe: "For months of the year have passed, and we find that, notwithstanding the general dullness that has prevailed, the foreign commerce of the port of Boston, during that period, represents quite a respectable figure. The total value of the foreign imports and domestic and foreign exports is $67,557,931, of which sum $43,402,277 represents the imports and $24,155,654 the exports. The decrease in the foreign trade, as compared with the corresponding period of last year, represents a money value of about $14,000,000, nearly three-fourths of which is on the import side of the books. This year thus far, there has been one week when the value of the exports exceeded $1,000,000; and there have also been sixteen weeks when the value of the imports exceeded that sum per week. The heaviest week of imports, during the past two years, was the one ending April 3, 1873, when the amount was $2,091,509. The week preceding was also a heavy one, amounting to $2,058,214. The average weekly value of the exports, during the past ten months, has been $560,000, and the imports $1,000,500. During the remaining months of the calendar year the above figures will be considerably increased by the arrival of valuable cargoes from the East Indies and other parts of the globe, while our export trade will be augmented.

The New York Herald says of the effect of the election on Wall street speculations: "Perhaps the feeling cannot be better illustrated than by quoting a telegram from a distant capitalist to a Wall street banker, received to-day:

'The country is safe and the eagle still screams. Buy me a thousand shares of ——.'

"When Wall street becomes animated by this inspiration we shall witness a livelier display of business."

The total exports of produce from New York for the week ending yesterday were $5,236,120, which is an increase over last week of $492,604. The exports for the corresponding week of last year were $5,052,385, and for 1872 $5,470,194. The total exports of produce since January 1 this year are $245,631,598, against $250,359,474 last year, and $194,540,084 in 1872.

—Says the Chicago Inter-Ocean as to the effect of the election on finances: "There is much difference of opinion among business men as to what effect the elections will have on finances. One idea, however, seems to be prominent, viz.: that they will probably cause an advance in the price of gold, with all its consequent results. The intimation in this movement, however, is likely to be in Europe rather than in this country. The foreign holders of United States bonds know of but two parties in this country, and notwithstanding that the party which has just gained such unwonted success calls itself the Opposition party, it is known also that it includes the Democratic party, whose most prominent representative to European minds is Voorhees and his doctrine of repudiation. On the other hand, the present administration is known to be in favor of specie payments, and as the present elections forshadow a change in the administration they also foreshadow a change in the policy on that question. This is the view that will probably be taken of the present political situation by capitalists in Europe, and which will therefore cause a decline in the prices of United States bonds."

—The Supreme Court of Massachusetts has decided, in a suit against the Eastern Railroad Company, that where a horse took fright by a train coming suddenly on him at a turn of the road, the approach of the train not being perceivable, the railroad is liable for damages.

—It is reported that Mr. John Duff, of New York, has sold his stock in the Atlantic & Pacific Telegraph Company to the Union Pacific Railway, and resigned as President of the company. Mr. L. P. Morton has also resigned as trustee in the Atlantic and Pacific.

The decline was from 44¾ to 1 per cent., the latter in Pacific Mail. The other active stocks were Lake Shore, Western Union, Ohios, Northwestern, Union Pacific and Wabash. At and after the first board the market became active and strong, and a full recovery of the early decline took place. St. Paul preferred rose from 52¾ to 53¾. Atlantic & Pacific rose from 9½ to 9¾. During the afternoon the market was very quiet, but at the close there was a falling off of ¼@⅝ on realization sales, the greatest decline being in Pacific Mail. ### Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

PITTSBURGH DAILY MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, NOV. 6, 1874.

There is nothing new to record in regard to the general merchandise markets; business continues quiet, as the demand for all the leading staples is confined entirely to supplying immediate wants, there is no disposition manifested to speculate or over-trade, and people generally are becoming satisfied to do a regular and legitimate business. In regard to values, there have been no important changes since the date of our last report.

APPLES—Selling in a small way at jobbing prices, at $1.50@2.75 ₩ bbl, as to quality.
APPLE BUTTER—In kegs, 6@8c.
BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—4@4½c ₩ lb.
BEANS—$2@2.25 ₩ bushel.
BUTTER—There is no improvement to note in the demand, and while the market continues dull, prices have undergone no quotable change; prime to choice roll, 27@30; medium to good, 20@25.
CHEESE—There is no demand, transactions light, and prices are weak at 12½@13 ₩ bushel.
CRANBERRIES—$10@13 ₩ bbl.
EGGS—Are in moderate supply, steady demand, and we can report regular jobbing sales at quotations—prime Ohio Factory, 16½@17c; New York do, 17@18; Ohio Shipping, 17@18.
EGGS—The supply of fresh stock is meagre, unequal to the demand, and prices are sustained; may be fairly quoted at 40. Pickled, 30@35, according to brand.
FLOUR—Continues dull, and while prices remain without quotable change, the tendency is downward. Spring wheat flours, $6.75@6 for Wisconsins and $6.25@6.50 for Minnesotas; winters at $6@6.25 for red, and $6.75@7 for white. Rye Flour, $5.75.
GROCERIES—The grocery trade continues slow, and in a general way presents but little that is new or important. Our dispatches both from Baltimore and New York continue to report Coffee dull, and notwithstanding the steps taken by the trade comparatively tight, prices are weak, with strong indications of a break. Sugars continue quiet and unchanged and the same is true of almost everything in this category.

GRAIN—Trade in grain circles continues very dull, more so than it has been for some time past, but there will doubtless be an increased demand within the next few days, as retailers will soon soon be forced to enter the market again. Wheat continues quiet and unchanged; Penna and Ohio red winter, $1.12@1.15; white, $1.18@1.20. The Oat market is also quiet, but so far as we can learn, there is no disposition manifested to make concessions to effect sales; otherwise, holders cannot afford to recede in prices as long as the western markets, our chief source of supply, keep up. We continue to quote mixed at 36@37c; Ohio white at 38@39c, and western white at 39 to 40. New Ear Corn continues to come in sparingly and the market is firm at 70 in bulk, while, quotable on track at 65 to 67c; new shelled also firmer for the same reason; selling at 68 to 72, free in elevators, according to condition and quality. Old shelled Corn quiet and unchanged at 80 to 82. Rye unchanged at 1@1.05. Barley is quotable at $1.15@1.25 for No. 2 and 2 Spring, and fair at $1.30.

HAY—The market continues quiet and unchanged; baled, $18 to 22 ₩ ton, and loose, from country wagons, at $25 to 26, as to quality. Oat Straw, baled, $16@17 ₩ ton, by the car load.

MILL FEED—Continues dull, and with continued liberal receipts and stocks accumulating, prices must ask some shrinkage.

PROVISIONS—Our dispatches both from Chicago and Cincinnati report those markets as being firmer and more active; in our market business is fair, while prices remain without quotable change, as follows:

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, Nov. 6, 1874.

PIG IRON.

Trade in this important article continues quiet, and the market is devoid of anything new or particularly important. While consumers are still adhering closely to the policy of buying only for immediate requirements, carrying no more stock than is absolutely necessary, there is, nevertheless, a very fair business in the aggregate, and it is evident, in view of the fact that the mills, with one or two exceptions, have been running, many of them to their full capacity, all season, that the consumption, here in Pittsburgh, is not much below what it usually is at this particular time. In former years, however, it was customary with the mills to carry from one to three months stock, while, at the present time, the most of them are buying from week to week, and it is not to be expected that consumers will discard this course as long as the market continues in its present depressed condition. Since the date of our last review, there has been no quotable change in prices, but within the past three or four weeks there has been a decline of fully $1 ₩ ton, and pig is lower now than it has been at any time since the panic as well as for several years before, with a continued downward tendency The following sales were reported:

MANUFACTURED IRON.

The general position of the market as regards finished irons remains substantially as noted in our last review; manufacturers generally complain that orders are light, as compared with former years, that both jobbers and large consumers are buying only for immediate wants, although there is a very fair business in the aggregate. Prices continue weak, in sympathy with the raw article, although, as compared with last week, there has been no quotable change; we continue to quote on a basis of 2.6 for merchant bars; 4.6 for sheet No. 24 and 4.8 for hoop.

NAILS.

The Nail trade continues very dull, although this is not unusual at this season of the year, and, furthermore, no improvement can reasonably be expected until January or February. The most of the factories have either been stopped or run short their production very materially, as there is no inclination on the part of makers to accumulate stock in the present state of affairs. Prices remain unchanged; $3.35, sixty days, with the usual discount of two per cent. for cash.

SCRAP IRON.

The Scrap Iron trade continues dull and neglected with but little prospect at this writing of any immediate improvement. The following are the nominal buying quotations: Car Springs, $40 per net ton; Car Axels, $35; R. R. Scrap, $27; Blacksmith Scrap, $25; Mixed Scrap, $20; Tires, Plates, $18; Wrought Turnings, $22; Boiler Plate, $44; Car Wheels, $25 ₩ gross ton.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, Nov. 6, 1874.

There is no improvement to note in trade, and while hopes are still entertained that there will soon be a change for the better, the indications at this writing, we regret to state, are not very encouraging. Crude has undergone little or no change for several days, although, if anything, the general tone of the market has a little better feeling, with sales at Parker, for immediate shipment, at 72½@73¾, equal to, counting full pipage, 42½@42¾ at the wells. New wells are still of common occurrence, although we learn from good authority that the number of wells going down is small as compared with the corresponding time last year, and the production is also considerably less, although it is unlikely to long still further with the consumption. Refined continues dull, but prices have undergone no quotable change; Philadelphia delivery, 10¾; Baltimore, 10¾; New York, 10¾, at the low rate of transportation to Baltimore, affords no margin for profit, while so far as regards Philadelphia it could only be laid down there in Pennsylvania Central Railroad except at a loss of 40@50c ₩ bbl.

There is little or nothing doing in Barrels, and prices are nominally unchanged; $1.30 for countries and $1.40 for city make.

Prospects of Lumber in Michigan.

(From the Lumberman's Gazette, of Oct. 26.)

We hold it to be certain that there will be no lack of logs next year to meet any demand likely to come, judging from present prospects. For the last week or two men have been engaged for the woods, and started from the river towns as far up as Saginaw Valley. The men seeking such engagements do not find the demand brisk, or anything to compare with the business of former years, but still a great deal has been done in the aggregate. Wages, too, are better than was expected. The prevailing rates have ranged from twenty to twenty-five dollars per month—only choice men, well known for some valuable qualification or long service, getting the higher price, however. The revival in the lumber business in this line has opened out more favorably than was anticipated, and, if we were to judge by this single circumstance, we should be led to imagine that better times were near at hand. The laborers are certainly much better provided for than any one would have cared to promise two months ago.

In the Saginaw region proper, to which the above remarks on wages apply, there will be a large amount of logs put in. Along the shore, northward as far as Thunder Bay, the same state of affairs exists. At Alpena, however, the lumber business is dull, and operations are laid out upon a more liberal scale. The fact that the Chicago market will consume about three and a half millions of shingling is unusual among this year, and that Chicago buyers have been contracting as far ahead as next spring for some time past, seems to have convinced the west shore people that there is to be a great demand from that quarter next year, and their influence, before remarked, extends around the Lake Huron shore at least as far as Thunder Bay. Above that point the operations grow more brisk, until we reach the Muskegon region, where we find the most extensive preparations yet reported from any quarter. Our correspondent has already collected several west shore districts has given a very full account of the projected operations.

We approve the last two reports above set forth will not be changed materially as the Winter sets in, and that the figures will be realized in fact in two directions. The streams being generally almost clear of logs, and the improvements to facilitate log driving having done away in a great measure with the channel piers against which logs form a mad rear, we certainly expect that there will be no serious hanging up of logs, but that what are cut will be got to the mills during the season.
